This modern take on an historic silhouette has appeared at several London shows, lending summery cool to fluid outfits. Simple, sometimes cleated soles are the basis for structured, restrained strap details which tie around the ankle or are buckled across the foot. Core colours are the mainstay, with an elegant shade of navy popping up at Body Bound.